This Week At Rotary

This Wednesday (November 22), is a chance to get to know some of our new members a little better. New member bios will be presented by Russ Mitten and Ann Durbin.

Prayer: Jim Casey

Humor: Joan Kramer

We would like everyone in the club to participate by sharing a humorous story or offering the prayer. To sign up sent Pam Copeland an email to:

pamc@homemakerhealth.org

Upcoming Programs:

November 29 – Virtual Schools- Curt Fuchs - DESE

We are in need of some programs for December. If you have an idea for a program, send Kay Freidinger an email to: KFreidinger@premierbank.com

Bring a friend to Rotary this week!

Breakfast Rotary Christmas Party

Mark your calendars for the Breakfast Rotary Christmas Party on Wednesday evening, December 13 at N.H. Scheppers Distributing at 2300 St Mary's Blvd. Spouses and significant others are invited to attend. There will not be a meeting on Wednesday morning, December 13. This event is being chaired by Bob Asahl and Randy Scherr. I hope everyone will be able to join us for some holiday cheer.

Food Drive For RACS

A very special thank you to everyone who brought food for RACS. They were excited to see our trucks pull up with a new supply of food... Thanks to Aaron Martin for chairing this effort and to Bob Sfredo for making the delivery.

Adopt-A-Family

The Breakfast Rotary Club will be adopting families this year during the holiday season. Bill Yarnell is coordinating this effort will be sharing more information about the families we will be adopting along with the timeline for this important effort. This year the Samaritan Center had two large families for whom they were having difficulty finding sponsors. We have agreed to take on these two large families and one smaller family. We plan to combine two teams for each of these large families. More details on Wednesday.
