This Week At Rotary

This week at Rotary Kay Freidinger has arranged for Jenny Smith from the Historical City of Jefferson to speak to our club. I am sure you will find this to be an interesting speaker and hope you will be able to attend.

This Week:

Prayer: Joan Krammer

Humor: Harv Sanders

We would like everyone in the club to participate by sharing a humorous story or offering the prayer. To sign up sent Pam Copeland an email to:

pamc@homemakerhealth.org

January 24 – Jenny Smith, Historical City of Jefferson

January 31 – Linda Heckman, JCPS Teacher of the Year

February 7 – John Howland, Malawi Water Project

February 14 Special Valentine's Day Breakfast

If you have an idea for a program, send Kay Freidinger an email to: KFreidinger@premierbank.com

Current Bylaws Attached

On the next page of this newsletter are the rules for a Bylaws contest and entry form. If you need a copy of the current or proposed bylaws, please check the two previous newsletters or let Roger know and one will be emailed to you.

WOW what a crowd!!

The annual Breakfast Rotary Chicken Dinner was another huge success because of the support of all club members. Tony Shanley did a great job in planning this year's event and will have a more complete report at our meeting on Wednesday. I know that we served over 600 people and we also sold a large number of raffle tickets. I also know that we had a large number of members there to help with dinner. Thanks to each and every one of you who were there to help!!!! The Boys and Girls Club and the Big Brothers Big Sisters programs will benefit from our efforts and I appreciate the way our club members work so hard to make sure that this fund-raiser is a success. Congratulations to Phyllis Willibrand, winner of the $500 Raffle Grand Prize. We will have a list of all winners at the meeting on Wednesday.

Special Valentine's Day Event

We have a very special Breakfast Rotary event scheduled for Wednesday morning, February 14. Connie Mihalevich, Winnette Swanson and Pam Copeland are planning a Valentine's Day event for you and your spouse that everyone will enjoy. It includes a chocolate breakfast, a special speaker, and some special surprises. You won't want to miss this one, and all spouses are invited and encouraged to attend. Have your spouse mark his/her calendar to attend our meeting on February 14!!!!
