Dear Rotarian Dudley,

It's almost here. The day you have all been waiting for. Tomorrow is "Club Assembly" day! Hip Hip, Hooray! Tomorrow you will hear from your club officers and committee chairs about their plans for the current Rotary year. As we all know, the future of Rotary is in our hands. (For all of you gamblers out there, Las Vegas has set the odds that Gary Markenson will have one of his orange plastic vests in his pocket at 1:5.)

We are scheduled to be in room Truman A and breakfast will be served to us as a plated meal so you won't have to walk all the way across the atrium for the buffet.

The hotel is considering Apple Stuffed Pancakes with Syrup, Bacon and Breakfast Potatoes. Sound good?

I don't have the sheet with the prayer and humor volunteers with me as I compose this message so if you are not sure if it could be you, I guess that you will have to come and find out in the morning.

See you then and remember: This club's for you!

Yours in Rotary Service,
Joseph N. Scheppers
