Dear Rotarian Dudley,

Once again, your faithful servant is getting this letter out a bit late in the day to do some of you any good, but here it is anyway. (This way, those of you who religiously check your email throughout the day have an advantage over us once or twice a day checkers.) Anyway, I digress. Tomorrow, our speaker will be Davin Althoff of the Missouri Beef Council. Here is some info on Davin which he apparently sent Bill Rogers, who listed him as David Althoff. David, Davin, clearly someone made a typo so I am going with Davin since I am assuming that the info below was cut and pasted and surely Mr. Althoff knows his own name. In any case, Bill forwarded it to me and I in turn am forwarding it to you. (No, it's not a chain letter. You don't have to forward it to anyone else to prevent bad luck.)

My name is Davin Althoff:

Grew up on a family farm in Moniteau County
 Graduated from California High School in 1996 where I was a member of the football team and basketball team
 In 2000, I earned a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Agribusiness with a Minor in Business Administration from Lincoln University
 Graduated Salutatorian
 In 2008, I earned my Master's of Business Administration from William Woods University
 Recently, I just received my Master's in Beef Advocacy
 Currently, I farm part-time with my father who farms full-time in Moniteau County
 We primarily are in the stocker and cow/calf business
 I also work for the Missouri Senate as a Budget Analyst
 I also have two children (boys) 4 and 9

Mark Mehmert is scheduled to do tomorrow's prayer and the always reliable Randy Scherr will have humor. (Actually, should Randy not make it, I could repeat a little story a guest on Conan O'Brien told last night that I found quite amusing, but, if you saw the show, I could never tell it as well as the professional.)

As I send this letter, our board meeting is less than an hour and a half away at 5:15 pm tonight at N.H. Scheppers Distributing and of course, all members are welcome. If I don't see you tonight, hopefully I will see you in the morning.

And always remember...

For all you do, this club's for you. The Future of Rotary is in your hands!

Yours in Rotary Service,

Joseph N. Scheppers
