Dear Rotarian Dudley,

For the second time in the past four weeks, I find myself in the gateway city of St. Louis and thus will not be there tomorrow morning to greet all of you nor our speaker; the new Jefferson City School district superintendent Brian Mitchell. But fear not, loyal Rotarians. You will be in the very capable hands of President-Elect Greg Frank who will lead you in our Wednesday morning rituals. Greg will call on Ken Fryer for your morning prayer and Randy Scherr for your morning dose of humor. (If anyone sees George Kastler heading for the podium, please do everyone a favor and tackle him before gets there and tells more elephant jokes.)

I will see all of you next week at our first offsite meeting of the Rotary year (if someone will be so kind as to let me know where it will actually be since the location was still in doubt last week).

Board members, committee chairs and anyone else inclined to attend, our monthly board meeting will be next Tuesday, October 13th at NH Scheppers Distributing, not tonight as usually scheduled.

See you all next week and always remember: The Future of Rotary is in Your Hands. For all you do, this club's for you.

Yours in Rotary Service,

Joe Scheppers (sent by Greg)
