Dear Rotarian Dudley,

Are you ready for the last meeting of 2009? It really doesn't matter if you are or if you are not, it is upon us. Another question: Did you know that tomorrow is election day? It is. Yes, tomorrow our membership will be presented with a slate of candidates for all club offices for the 2010-2011 Rotary year. I would tell you who these candidates are but I have been sworn to secrecy by the nominating committee. So, don't forget to bring your voter registration card (new members – I'm just kidding) and be prepared to cast your vote (or nominate your own candidate) to serve our club for the next Rotary year.

Just in case the election doesn't take up all of our time, we have several new members that we may not know a lot about. To remedy that situation, I will be inviting Don Martin, Steve Dinolfo and Paul Childress to take the opportunity to tell us a little about themselves. For a taste of what may be in store, check out the attachment to this email. I hope Don saved a few surprises for us.

Chevis Smith will have our prayer and everyone's favorite, George Kastler has agreed to deliver Bill Robinett's joke as Bill signed up for tomorrow but won't be able to join us himself. Either that or the joke is so bad that Bill wanted to be far away when it is delivered. Let's hope that it's not the latter.

If you cannot make it tomorrow, I would like to take this opportunity to wish you and your family a happy, healthy and prosperous new year! Remember that The Future of Rotary is in Your Hands. For all you do, this club's for you.

Joe
