Dear Rotarian Dudley,

Happy New Year fellow Rotarians. January not only brings us a new year, but it is also Rotary Awareness Month. Therefore, it is my duty to make you "aware" that we have much going on in our club this month beginning with a board meeting this very evening, beginning at 5:15pm in the N. H. Scheppers Distributing conference room. As always, all are welcome to attend.

Then, just a few hours later, the very next Rotary event for our club will be our weekly morning gathering at the Capital Plaza Hotel where this week we will hear from JCFD spokesman Jason Turner. I'm sure that you won't want to miss Jason's presentation and who knows, you may learn something that could one day save your property, your life or the lives of your loved ones. Don Alberti will have the distinct honor of introducing Jason to our club.

Turning to page two of our volunteer sign-up sheet I find that George Kastler will provide our first prayer of the new year (first at a Breakfast Rotary meeting that is) and the ever hilarious Gary Markenson has placed his neck on the humor chopping block. Also, Eric Struempf will be posted for membership.

Of course the biggest Rotary event of January to be aware of is our upcoming Winter BBQ fundraiser to benefit three local charities. Have you sold your dinner and raffle tickets? There are more where they came from and we can always print more so don't worry about selling too many. It can't be done.

So, board members and other interested members, I will see you in an hour and a half and the rest of you I will see in the morning but until then, remember; The Future of Rotary is in Your Hands! For all you do, this club's for you.

Yours in Rotary Service,
Joe
