Dear Rotarian Dudley,

I trust all went well with last week's meeting in my absence. I am sure that none of you missed me, but unfortunately for me, I missed hearing the new member bios that were given at that meeting. These glimpses into a member's life are some of the most interesting programs that we have and I truly regret missing them last week. I guess that I will have to wait for their memoirs to be published.

Moving on - we will be moving on out of the Capitol Plaza hotel for the next couple of weeks with off-site meetings. Tomorrow, we will be touring the Cole County Master Gardener's greenhouse and hearing from a Master Gardener or two as well as from James Quinn of the Cole County Extension Center. We will meet in the Cedar City Room at the North Jefferson Multipurpose Building, 810 Sandstone Drive (Right Behind MFA). A detailed map of the area is attached. Bill Rodgers will be introducing James and telling us a little about the facilities as well. Our prayer will be given by Greg Frank and Jay Jordan will supply the humor. The following week, May 5th, we will be visiting AllMed. Details to follow.

Your Breakfast Rotary Trivia Team competed well in the Rotary West Trivia Night last Friday evening. We once again finished a very respectable 2nd out of 20 teams, outscoring the third place team by 7 points, 77 – 70 and only being surpassed by the defending champions who answered 79 of the 100 questions correctly.

See you in North Jefferson City tomorrow morning. As always, THE FUTURE OF ROTARY IS IN YOUR HANDS. For all you do, this club's for you.

Yours in Rotary Service,
Joe
