Dear Rotarian Dudley,

And now the end is near
And so I face my final bell ring
My friends I'll say it clear
The Rotary year, was such a good thing

We have a club that's full and picked up trash along the highway
And more, much more than this
I did it my way

I think I'll keep my day job. (and my apologies to all you Sinatra fans out there)

This will be the last program reminder that I will send out as 2009-2010 Jefferson City Breakfast Rotary President. Yes, technically there will be one more meeting; the installation picnic at 5:30PM on June 30th at McClung Park. I will open that meeting as club president but once the new officers are installed by our own Assistant District Governor – Tom Quinn, my tour of duty will officially be over. I have followed a lot of dedicated members who have served our club in this capacity and I am honored that the membership put its faith in me to attempt to carry on that tradition. While I tried to bring my own style and tone to the club meetings, it is all of you who make this club the great organization that it is. So great, in fact, that even I couldn't mess it up. Truly, for all you do, this club's for you!

Now, on to this week's meeting details:

President-Elect Greg Frank will deliver the opening prayer and Webmaster Dudley Galloway will be very funny with the humor duties. The program speaker is Dr. Alan Rauba of JCMG. Dr. Rauba will be speaking about cardiovascular health. We could all certainly use plenty of that! I hope to see each of you there.

The year has flown by but one thing has remained consistently true throughout each and every day of the year: The Future of Rotary is in Your Hands.

Yours in Rotary Service,
Joe
