Dear Rotarian Dudley,

We're back to our old stomping grounds at the Capitol Plaza Hotel this week .

Stephen Stark will lead the prayer this week. Humor will be a "jump ball" – first to respond gets it!

The Honorable Mary Russell will be presiding this week for our program. Her topic will be the "Stay-Out-of-Jail Program" at Lewis and Clark middle school. Judge Mary is the volunteer "judge" of the program. She also happens to moonlight as a justice on the Supreme Court of Missouri and is president of the Downtown Club.

Contrary to popular belief, the "Stay-Out-of-Jail Program" is not a program targeted for wayward Rotarians. I have noticed that Bill Cowell has been very uncomfortable as this program has approached on the calendar!

See everyone at the meeting,
